

This question is a special case of Example 4.6.

Example 47 : As shown in the figure, in $\triangle ABC$, AD , BE , CF intersect at a point O , the necessary and sufficient condition to prove $FD \perp FE$ is $\angle BFD = \angle CFD$.

