This question is a special case of Example 4 6 .

Example 48 : As shown in the figure, in $\triangle ABC$, AD, BE, CF intersect at a point O, FE intersects BC at G, the necessary and sufficient condition to prove that $AD \perp AG$ is $\angle BAD = \angle CAD$.